Amanda L. Harris and Angela A. Woolard have joined the family law practice at Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith LLP.

Harris is certified as a family law specialist by the State Bar of California. Her practice focuses exclusively on family law matters with an emphasis on complex, high net-worth marital dissolutions. Prior to joining Solomon Ward, Harris was a partner at Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek. She received her J.D. from University of California, Hastings College of Law and a bachelor's degree from UC Davis.

Woolard joins Solomon Ward as an associate. Her practice focuses exclusively on family law matters, including assistance with dissolution of marriage proceedings and family law appeals, as well as the preparation and negotiation of prenuptial and marital settlement agreements. Prior to joining the firm, she was an associate at Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek. Woolard received her J.D. from California Western School of Law and a bachelor's degree from San Diego State University.
