

Solomon Ward announces new managing partner

By Allyson Aleksey
Monday, June 24, 2019

Stephen L. Schreiner has been named managing partner of Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith, effective July 1.

He takes over for Daniel Gardenswartz, who served as the firm's managing partner for the past four years. Gardenswartz will now become chair of Solomon Ward's litigation department.

With more than 35 years of legal experience and 14-plus years at the firm, Schreiner's expertise lies in client representation in complex business, commercial and real estate litigation.

He is also experienced in gaming law in the state of California and represents gambling establishments before a variety of regulatory agencies, including the California Gambling Control Commission.

Schreiner earned his J.D. from the University of California at Berkeley Boalt Hall School of Law and his B.A. from the University of California, San Diego.