PROFILE

Abigail R. Ramos is an associate attorney in the firm's trust & estate litigation department, devoted to providing clients dependable counsel in estate planning and trust and probate administration.

Abigail received her Juris Doctor from the Syracuse University College of Law with a certificate in Technology Commercialization, and her Bachelor of Arts in English from Syracuse University, with a minor in Public Communication. While at Syracuse, Abigail served as a Research Associate for the New York State Science and Technology Law Center, and a Student Attorney for the Transactional Law Clinic. Abigail also served as a Founding Member and Vice President of Communications for the National Filipino American Law Students Association.

Prior to joining the firm, Abigail was a legal extern for the Hon. William Q. Hayes at the United States District Court, Southern District of California.
