PROFILE

Ms. Filippone provides strategic, client-focused legal advice and services to companies in a wide variety of industries, including life sciences, technology, software, services and consumer products. She specializes in business transactions, business formation and planning, contract drafting and review, intellectual property licensing, federal and state securities law compliance and corporate governance matters. She has significant expertise in federal securities law compliance, periodic reporting requirements under federal securities laws and advising boards of directors on corporate governance matters. Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Filippone was an attorney in the corporate group of a leading international law firm and had her own private law practice specializing in business law and transactional matters. She also served as general counsel and corporate secretary of a Nasdaq-listed specialty pharmaceutical company. Prior to embarking on her legal career, Ms. Filippone worked in the securities industry, where she held FINRA Series 7, 63 and 24 licenses.
