PROFILE

Mr. Angert was born in Odessa, Ukraine. His family immigrated to the United States when he was 12 years old. Having graduated high school with a Presidential Academic Achievement Award, Mr. Angert pursued his Bachelor of Science in Neuroscience and Mammalian Physiology with a Minor in Russian Studies from the University of California, San Diego. While at UCSD, Mr. Angert participated in hemoglobin-based blood substitute research, which is currently awaiting FDA approval.

After obtaining his undergraduate degree, Mark traveled all over the world working for M&M International Trading Corporation. While at M&M International, Mark led the development of M&M International's subsidiary, Golden Brazil, a coffee manufacturing and trading company. He made Golden Brazil a multi-million dollar success, which was eventually spun-off. While at M&M International, Mark was promoted to Vice President and eventually became a co-owner of both companies. As Mark was growing the business he developed an interest in law which lead him to his career as an attorney.

In his practice, Mark represents domestic and international clients in business disputes ranging from breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duties to intentional interference with business and fraud. Mark represents his clients in both State and Federal courts and relies on his business and legal backgrounds to present the most effective, efficient, and beneficial results for all of his clients. In addition to litigating cases in California, Mark also oversees litigations and disputes abroad for some of his long-standing corporate clients in Germany, England, Russia, Ukraine, China, and India.

Mark serves as corporate counsel for a variety of clients ranging from small domestic companies to large international corporations. Mark works with his clients on set up and maintenance of various corporate entities and advises his clients in strategies and techniques to ensure continued success of these entities.
