PROFILE

I aim to be more than a business attorney for my clients. Rather, I strive to be my clients' trusted advisor. Every time I work on a matter, whether big or small, I put myself in my client's shoes and consider my client as my teammate and partner in the matter. Whether it involves structuring a new business venture that achieves the most tax-favorable result, drafting and negotiating a purchase or sale transaction, or providing general business advice, I want my clients to achieve the best result every time.

Mr. Lees has substantial experience representing businesses (large and small), business owners, individuals and professionals regarding their corporate, partnership/LLC, tax, real estate, estate planning and other contractual matters. Mr. Lees received his B.S. in business administration with a double major in accounting and finance from the University of Arizona, his J.D. from the University of San Diego School of Law and his Masters in Law (LL.M.) in taxation, with distinction, from Georgetown University Law Center. Before joining Solomon Ward, Mr. Lees was a partner at Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek in San Diego. Mr. Lees currently serves as the firm's Transactional Department Chair. Mr. Lees is also an Adjunct Professor at the University of San Diego School of Law. A native of San Diego, Mr. Lees is actively involved in the San Diego community. He currently serves as a member of the Board of Directors of International Relief Teams and the University of Arizona Alumni Association.
