THE PROGRAM

The California Electronic Discovery Act (EDA) is nearly 10 years old and has brought radical changes to how discovery is conducted in the largest court system in the country - California state courts. Or has it?

Join attorney Don Ernst, one of the principle drafters of the EDA, San Diego Superior Court Judge Kenneth Medel, and San Diego attorney Timothy Blood, who bounces between state and federal court, to explore the similarities and important differences every lawyer should know about the EDA and federal eDiscovery practices, including the underutilized, but important parts of the EDA that will make you an even better state court litigator.

THE SPEAKERS

Tim Blood, Blood Hurst & O'Reardon LLP
Don Ernst, Ernst Law Group
Hon. Kenneth Medel, San Diego Superior Court
