THE PROGRAM

This event, which we present every other year or so, is an introduction to eDiscovery intended for those just getting started and as a refresher for those who want one.

The panel will outline the basic principles and best practices of electronic discovery. The discussion will cover relevant state and federal rules, identify key cases and provide practical tips in engaging with vendors, opposing counsel, and the courts in both civil and criminal cases.

THE PANELISTS

Lauren Doucette, Legal Technologist at Sheppard Mullin
Matt Kregel, Director of Information Retention Counseling at Cooley
Jessica R. Gross, Attorney at Sheppard Mullin
