

Daily Business Report

Rebecca Van Loon joins Solomon Ward law firm as a partner

By SD Metro Magazine
April 3, 2020

Rebecca Van Loon has joined Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith LLP as a partner.

With a nine-year practice focusing in the areas of estate planning, trust and probate administration and taxation law, Van Loon assists families and individuals with all aspects of estate planning, including wills, trusts, advance health care directives and financial powers of attorney. She also assists clients with estate, gift and property tax planning, including charitable gift planning.

A Certified Specialist in Estate Planning, Trust & Probate Law by the State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization, Van Loon's practice also incorporates international estate planning, as well as the representation of individuals, private professional fiduciaries and corporate trustees as fiduciaries through trust and estate administrations.

Prior to joining Solomon Ward, Van Loon was a shareholder at Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek.

Van Loon is a member of the State Bar of California and San Diego County Bar Association's Trusts & Estates Taxation Sections, as well as the Lawyers Club of San Diego. She also serves on the San Diego Blood Bank Financial Resource Development Committee and is president of Gonzaga University's Alumni Association.

Van Loon received her J.D., cum laude, from Willamette University College of Law, her LL.M in Taxation, magna cum laude, from the University of San Diego School of Law and her B.A., cum laude, from Gonzaga University.

<http://www.sandiegometro.com/2020/04/daily-business-report-april-3-2020/>