

Ashley N. Brown
abrown@swsslw.com
(t) 619.238.4870
(f) 619.231.4755

Ashley N. Brown | Attorney

Ashley Brown is a native Texan and received her undergraduate degree in music from Texas Christian University before graduating from the University of Texas School of Law with honors. After law school, Ms. Brown practiced as a litigation associate at Baker Botts LLP in Houston, Texas before joining the trusts and estates department of a firm in Salinas, California. Ms. Brown moved to San Diego in 2022, and practiced at Perkins Coie LLP before joining Solomon Ward. Ms. Brown's practice focuses on all aspects of trust and estate planning, including drafting wills, trusts, health care directives, and financial powers or attorney. Ms. Brown also has experience appearing in probate court and administering trusts and estates.

Practice Areas

- Trust & Estate Planning

Education

- University of Texas School of Law, honors, 2017
- Texas Christian University, BA in Music and Minor in General Business, magna cum laude, 2014

Noteworthy Experience

- Estate planning, including drafting wills, revocable trusts, advance health care directives and financial powers of attorney
- Trust administration, including representing trustees during vivos trust administration and administration of a decedent's revocable trust
- Estate administration and probate proceedings, including representing executors and administrators during administration

Achievement and Affiliations

- Member of San Diego County Bar Association
- Member of the State Bar of California
- Member of the State Bar of Texas
- Member of the Probate Attorneys of San Diego
- Member of Lawyers Club of San Diego