

Connor E. McGettigan | Attorney

Connor E. McGettigan is an associate attorney focused on helping individuals and families navigate the complexities of estate planning and administration. Whether working with a young family just beginning their journey or with high-net-worth clients with more sophisticated and complex needs, Connor brings a personalized, client-first approach to every matter. He believes no two clients are the same, and that effective planning starts with listening. Connor's practice centers on the design and drafting of estate plans and the administration of trusts and estates. He works closely with clients to develop individually tailored solutions that reflect their goals, values, and long-term priorities. In his free time, Connor enjoys golfing, geocaching, building Legos, and cheering on his Arizona Diamondbacks.
