Leah S. Strickland | Partner

Leah Strickland is an attorney in the firm's litigation practice group. Her practice focuses on business litigation, employment litigation, and intellectual property disputes, and she has substantial experience defending against claims under the state and federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act. She advises individuals and businesses in resolving disputes prior to the commencement of litigation, and represents clients after litigation has begun in both federal and state court actions.

Ms. Strickland received her Juris Doctor from the College of William & Mary School of Law, and was a recipient of the merit-based Graduate Research Fellowship. While at William & Mary, Ms. Strickland also served as a member of Law Review, was admitted into the William & Mary Chapter of Order of the Coif, and earned CALI Awards in Philosophy of the Law and Patent Law. Before law school, she earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Texas at Austin, where she graduated with high honors and was admitted into the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

Ms. Strickland is currently a member of the SDCBA Legal Ethics Committee and the Appellate Practice Section, and she frequently writes and lectures on legal topics.
