

Nickolas J. Brooks | Attorney

Nicholas J. Brooks

nbrooks@swsslw.com

(t) 619.238.4818

(f) 619.231.4755

Mr. Brooks is a civil litigation associate at Solomon Ward, where his work encompasses conducting thorough legal research, drafting precise legal documentation, and formulating tailored strategies to meet diverse client needs. Fluent in English, Spanish, Portuguese, and conversational in Italian, Mr. Brooks skillfully communicates with a wide range of clients. Outside the legal field, he is an avid NFL fantasy football league commissioner, an engaged follower of current events, a dedicated language learner, an attendee of live events, and an advocate for maintaining an active lifestyle.

Practice Areas

- Administrative Law
- Bankruptcy & Insolvency
- Business & Corporate Law
- Business Disputes
- Business Litigation
- Class Actions & Unfair Competition
- Commercial Landlord-Tenant Law
- Construction Law
- Electronic Discovery & ESI Services
- Employment Law
- Fair Credit Reporting Act/California Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act
- Fair Debt Collection Practices Act/California Rosenthal Act
- International Law
- Real Estate

Noteworthy Experience

- Mr. Brooks consistently achieves favorable outcomes in civil litigation and ADR, driven by his ability to conduct thorough legal research. His in-depth statutory analysis, case law application, and strategic argument development have directly contributed to advantageous settlements, strong defenses in business disputes, and successful rulings in regulatory cases.

Education

- Tennessee Technological University: Bachelor of Science in History, cum laude (2018)
- Rutgers Law School – Newark: Juris Doctor (2021)

Achievements and Affiliations

- Member, Enright Inn of Court

Community Affiliation

- Member, Mezzo Meetup (Italian Meetup Group)
- Member/Organizer, Bate Papo (Portuguese Meetup Group)