

Top Attorneys Award, 2021

Congratulations to Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith Partner Amanda Harris for being awarded as a Top Attorney by San Diego Metro Magazine, 2021.

Dedicated. Focused. Trustworthy. That's how colleagues and clients describe Amanda Harris, a partner at Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith LLP who, through her legal work and volunteerism, changes lives every day.

A Certified Specialist by the State Bar of California in Family Law, Amanda is dedicated, insightful and compassionate attorney, whose character and expertise in high-stakes conflict resolution have led clients — from celebrities and professional athletes to Fortune 500 executives, small-business owners and their spouses — to seek out her legal services as they navigate the complexities of the family court system.

Amanda, a 1995 graduate of the University of California San Francisco's Hastings College of Law, began her career in family law as an extern for the Superior Court of California Family Law Department in San Francisco. She melded this early legal experience with years of representing high net-worth clients at Bay Area, and later San Diego, law firms to become one of the nation's leading family law litigators.

A zealous advocate and skillful litigator, Amanda is known to pay artful attention to detail and strategy in order to deliver positive outcomes to clients — ensuring the best future for both her clients and their families.

She has countless clients who have benefitted from her work, including a client who had the following comment, “Thank you so much for your hard work, dedication, care, patience and your success with my case. This has been an easier experience because of your thoughtfulness and involvement.”
